

Caroline's Recommendations

Overcoming Speechlessness

Alice Walker

$9.95 (Seven Stories)

Chronicling her travels to Palestine/Israel and Rwanda/Congo, this book is amazingly informative and insightful without being pitiful or patronizing. It might break your heart, but it will move your soul to dance.

Prisons We Choose to Live Inside

Doris Lessing

$11.00 (Harper)

Lessing examines how we learn to think for ourselves and conceptualize of others and ourselves from new perspectives, among many other philosophical thoughts.

Precarious Life

Judith Butler

$19.95 (Verso)

Butler explores historical and current events to examine how post-9/11 vengeful rage can be turned not into war, but instead into productive global justice endeavors.

Taking Charge of Your Fertility

Toni Weschler

$24.99 (Collins)

Necessary reading for women and heterosexual men. Not just about preventing or creating spawn, but an amazing manual for understanding a woman's reproductive system, including what different types of mucous mean.

Sister Outsider

Audre Lorde

$16.99 (Crossing Press)

An anthology of essays by the lesbian poet that covers issues of sexism, racism, love, and the uses of anger. Attention should be paid to the essay "The Master's Tools Will Never Dismantle the Master's House."
