

Kramer's Potent Potables by Greg

Everyday Drinking

Kingsley Amis

$10.00 (Bloomsbury)

From college kids learning there's more to life than cheap beer and boxed wine to scotch drinkers who consider ice a barbaric addition, this is a condensed libation education.

Another Bullshit Night in Suck City

Nick Flynn

$13.95 (Norton)

Hammers are made of metal and kept in a toolbox, but sometimes they're made of alcohol and are housed inside ourselves. Written with such empathy, Flynn demonstrates the pain and redemption contained in the latter.

Tasting Beer

Randy Mosher

$16.95 (Storey)

There is really no need to know how to pronounce Reinheitsgebot. Knowing how won't change the taste of your beer; it will only change how fast your friends become bored of your pedantic ranting. Trust me. Let go of your ego and have Mosher give you the knowledge and guidance to unlock this astounding beverage.

A Fan's Notes

Frederick Exley

$16.00 (Vintage)

In America there is a place at which sport and drink meet, where a man can drift undisturbed. The question is, at what cost?
